BEER WILL FLOW HERE ONCE MORE

'Little Volstead' Act Of City Repealed By Council

COUNTY DELAYS

Beverage Sale Under Soft Drink License Allowed

Beer will flow unrestricted in Redwood City and San Mateo county on April 7.

Redwood City's "little Volstead act" was repealed by the council Monday and the supervisors the same day put over for two weeks the proposed beer revenue ordinance.

Both city and county will operate under their soft drink codes, giving any person who now holds a beverage license the right to dispense beer.

Delay in adopting new ordinances by city and county was caused by the failure of the legislature to agree on beer legislation. It is not known now whether the city or the county will have local option, or if regulation will be entirely up to the state.

San Mateo county's soft drink license is $1 quarterly, which will be changed to bring in whatever revenue the beer traffic will stand. The city's ordinance is based on sales.

Any revenue ordinance which the city may later adopt can be retroactive to April 7, Mansfield said, so there is no urgent necessity of immediate action.

Because Redwood City's ordinance limits the alcoholic content to one half of one per cent, the ordinance would have forbidden the 3.2 per cent "non-intoxicating" beer. It was therefore repealed on motion of Councilman Henry Beeger, seconded by Councilman Charles Hildebrant.

District Attorney Edmund Scott's measure for beer control divided dispensaries into three classes, one for sale by glass; a second for sale for home consumption, and a third for delivery. The license fees were left up to the board to fix.

ATHERTON ACTS

Atherton Monday adopted a revenue producing license by which it will permit the sale of beer in the one business house now established on the highway within the city limits. The ordinance provides for a $25 quarterly license.

Burlingame Monday decided to "let beer flow like soda pop" under its soft drink ordinance pending further legislation.

Redwood City 30 Years Ago

Lawrence Heiner was down from the city Sunday enjoying the day with his parents.

Miss Kittie Crowe returned home last Saturday after a very pleasant visit with relatives in Oakland.

Omer Doyle, who recently recovered from a severe case of appendicisit, is visiting his, friend Roy Curran.

The Sequoia basketball team defeated Polytechnic school of San Francisco by a score of 9 to 8.

The stork visited Redwood twice last Tuesday. On one visit it left a little baby girl at the home of Con Cullen and at the other left a boy for Frank Wentworth.

The best catch of trout this season was made by F. M. Granger Sunday. He caught 189 fine trout in the Purissima district as was ever seen in town. They averaged ten inches in length. Mr. Granger's friends were well supplied with fine specimens.

Fremont Older, managing editor of the Bulletin, left San Francisco Thursday, accompanied by his wife. After a brief sojourn in New York they will sail for Europe. They expect to travel in England, Scotland, France, Germany and Italy. Mr. Older was former editor of the Times-Gazette and a warm friend of the late James V. Swift.

LOCAL MAN SUFFERS INJURY TO HAND

Manuel Vierra of Main street incurred a badly injured hand Monday evening when an electric pump, which he was moving, fell upon him. He was treated at the emergency hospital by Dr. Harry Mason.

Easter Style Exhibition on Stage Tonight

This evening at 8:45 o'clock, in the Sequoia Theatre, Easter fashions will take the spotlight in one of the most elaborate fashion shows ever held in Redwood City.

The women's apparel division of the chamber of commerce is sponsoring the event, in cooperation with Thomas J. Kane and the Sequoia Theater.

Bobby Winborn, popular radio organist, has been secured to play for the occasion and he will also be heard between shows.

Eight pretty local girls will act as models. They are the Misses Genevieve Cunningham, Grace Brown, Marguerite Salmon, Helen Baxter, Vivian Douglas, Peggy Buchanan, Cecele Wathen and Anita Rodgers.

The program on the screen features Kate Smith in "Hello Everybody," and includes Walter Winchell, Bing Crosby, Tom Howard, Arthur Tracy, Irene Castle, Ruth Etting and Paul Whiteman and his band.

Easter Morn Services at Hilltop Cross

Easter sunrise services this year at the foot of the large cross at Emerald peak Sunday morning, April 16, will be a community undertaking in which the Redwood City Ministerial Union as sponsor of the annual event will co-operate with service clubs, civic organizations and the chamber of commerce, it was decided at a committee meeting Wednesday at the chamber of commerce office.

At the suggestion of the Rev. Norman W. Pendleton, representing the ministerial union, the citizens' committee formed yesterday will issue special invitations to all communities of the peninsula to participate in Redwood City's pilgrimage to the cross the morning of Easter Sunday.

City Manager Assists

City Manager E. A. Rolison pledged the assistance of the city in arranging for the illumination of the cross each night during Easter week. He will also secure the assistance of the Redwood City Police Department and the Boy Scouts in directing the large amount of traffic which makes its way into the foothills for early morning worship each Easter.

The program will be presented in the natural amphitheatre below the cross, with the ministerial union in charge. The Rev. Charles H. Gatchell of the First Baptist Church, president of the union, will preside at the service, and the address will be given by the Rev. Edwin Castledine, rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church. Music is to be provided by the choir of the First Methodist Church.

In keeping with the community plan, Mayor William J. Dusel and other city officials and presidents of service clubs and other organizations of the city will be seated on the platform.

Annual Event

Since the Easter sunrise service at Redwood City's cross became an annual event several years ago, it has attracted a large attendance from the entire community as well as from other peninsula cities.

Members of the citizens' committee are J. E. Morrish, chairman; E. A. Rolison, Dr. August J. Fromm Jr., James M. Eva, Mrs. E. L. Kilbourne, Herman J. Phillips, Roy A. Hohberger, Christy Allen, H. E. Holmquist, Henry McCausland, Carroll D. Hall, John Gill, A. C. Argo, W. J. Dusel, Rev. N. W. Pendleton, W. H. Morrissey, Robert N. Jones, James D. Hedge and Howard I. Wood.

Tacoma Brewery to Open Office Here

The old building adjoining the Poole draying establishment on Jefferson avenue and owned by J. W. Poole is being remodeled for a storage place for the Tacoma Brewing Company. The company will distribute its beer from the headquarters to all parts of the county.

The old building was formerly the Durham blacksmith shop that for years was located on Broadway near the old Times-Gazette building. The structure was moved to its present site on Jefferson avenue and for some time was used by Mr. Poole as a storehouse.

Menlo Parlors, Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, have postponed their next card party from April 6 to April 20.

WIFE FAILS IN LAWSUIT OVER DEATH

Judge Swart Denies $50,000 Damages To Local Widow

MATE KILLED

Los Angeles Chemist Awarded Judgment In Litigation

Dulce R. Acero, Redwood City widow, lost her $50,000 damage suit today against R. H. Pierson of Los Angeles for the death of her husband, Sam Acero, under Pierson's car last October.

Superior Judge Franklin Swart entered judgment in favor of Pierson, denying the widow any damages.

Acero was struck down at El Camino Real and Willow street, Five Points, on October 22, 1932, dying two days later in the Community Hospital of a fractured skull and internal injuries. Acero had apparently become confused by the heavy traffic, which was heading north from a Stanford football game. Pierson was driving toward San Francisco at the time of the accident. The accident happened about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

Pierson is chief chemist for the Gilmore Oil Company. He was represented by Attorney Armand H. Blum of Los Angeles. Judge Swart presided at the hearing, at which the jury had been waived.

Jr. Livestock Show Ready to Open April 10

With all arrangements completed, everything is in readiness for the sixth annual junior livestock and baby beef show to be held at the Union Stockyards, South San Francisco, April 10th to 13th. E. W. Stephens, general manager of the show, declares that this exhibition, the first show to be held in the spring, will set a new record from the standpoint of the number of exhibitors, the number of exhibits and high quality of livestock entered.

Reports from the various 4H Boys and Girls Clubs and future farmer organizations throughout California, Utah and Nevada indicate that the youngsters are looking forward to the coming show as marking a new milestone in these annual exhibitions. Five thousand dollars will be offered in prizes and awards for the best baby beef, lamb and hogs entered.

First Exhibits Due Soon

Many of the livestock shipments will arrive Saturday, April 8. The remainder will be on hand the following day. Because of the increased size of the show the management has had to provide enlarged accommodations. There has been an increase of approximately 25 per cent both in the number of exhibitors and exhibits.

There will be a formal opening ceremony Monday morning, April 10 with W. H. Moffatt, president of the show; W. H. Baber, president of the California Wool Growers Association; J. W. Mailliard Jr., president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce; Ira H. Potter, vice president of the San Mateo chamber, and J. W. Coleberd, president of the South San Francisco Chamber, as the featured attractions.

Following these brief exercises, the judging of lambs and hogs will begin. Robert F. Miller and E. H. Hughes of the University of California Agricultural College are judges of lambs and hogs respectively. Kenneth C. Ikeler of Ogden, Utah, will judge baby beef on Tuesday, April 11.

Plan Entertainment

The following day will be devoted to the educational entertainment of the youngsters. They will be taken on a sight-seeing trip, including a visit to several major industrial plants and to the city's famous waterfront. Here they will be guests at tea on the NYK liner Asama Maru.

The show will come to a close on Thursday, April 13, with the auction of all livestock exhibited. A. W. Thompson of Lincoln, Neb., will officiate in the auction ring. In the evening they will attend the annual banquet held at the Commercial Club in San Francisco.

SUFFERS LEG INJURY

Charles Murray of Menlo Park slipped on the steps of a home of a friend in Redwood City Monday and suffered a fracture of the right leg. He is at the Community Hospital.

Cooking School Begins Apr. 19 For Three Days

Local housewives are looking forward to the Safeway Stores Homemakers' Bureau Cooking School which will be held here for three days commencing Wednesday, April 19, in the parochial school auditorium.

Now in its third year of operation, the Safeway Stores Homemakers' Bureau is not a one-woman organization, nor is it operated by four or five persons. As a matter of fact, it employs 20 women at its headquarters in Oakland and many more serve the bureau in various capacities in different sections of the United States.

Catherine Laughton

Founded nearly three years ago by Julia Lee Wright, who is serving as national director, the bureau at the outset confined its operations to one small office. It now finds even its present four commodious departments cramped quarters at times.

The homemaking public has been made conscious of the bureau through two principal informatory channels, newspapers and radio broadcasts, and the cooking schools which the bureau conducts throughout the western states have also done much to familiarize women with the services available to them without charge. Last year, approximately 160,000 western women in 112 cities attended these schools, and this year's total is expected to exceed that figure by many thousands.

Mrs. Wright is a graduate of the University of Washington and has been in charge of the home economics department of a newspaper of national prominence as well as serving a number of leading national manufacturers of food products.

Belmont Delays Beer Law; Will Wait for State

BELMONT, Apr. 6.—At the city council meeting last evening three applications were filed for the sale of beer in Belmont. The applicants were C. J. Messner, Belle Monti Country Club, and the Blue Lantern Tavern. There is also a report that the Bayshore Kennel Club will apply for a beer license.

No action was taken. The council will await the decision of the legislature at Sacramento before it will authorize City Attorney Albert Mansfield to draw up an ordinance regulating the sale of beer here. It is possible that a special meeting will be held this week for this purpose.

The council was invited to attend a meeting of the Peninsula League of Municipalities on April 13 at San Mateo, when a number of measures taken up in the legislature, and affecting municipalities, will be discussed.

FIRST JURY AWARD HIT BY SECOND

$2000 Allowed After Crash Denied in Re-Trial

Granted $2000 damages by one jury, Henry Kroeger, 66, of Belmont, had it taken away by another jury here this week.

The damages were assessed against Bruce Sisson, 18, of San Mateo, and his parents, Ernest and Olga Sisson, for injuries incurred by Kroeger in front of the Mills hospital, San Mateo, when his own and young Sisson's car collided.

Kroeger incurred a fracture of the left shoulder and a displacement of several vertebrae of the spine. He asked $8585 and a jury gave him $2000.

Judge Franklin Swart set it aside and granted the Sissons a new trial because the evidence showed that Kroeger made a "U" turn in front of the hospital.

The new jury, sitting before Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt, refused to grant him any damages.

Ross & Ross represented the defendants.

HIGH COURT GETS BRIEF ON CHARTER

Judges Swart, McNutt Say Their Posts Are at Stake

ASK GUIDANCE

Question Right to Act On Managerial Selections

Four pertinent questions which sum up their views on the county charter "qualification board" were put up to the state supreme court for settlement in briefs filed Thursday by Superior Judges Franklin Swart and Maxwell McNutt.

They were contained in the points and authorities supporting their demurrer to the petition for a writ of mandate sought by Pansy Jewett Abbott, county superintendent of schools, who is seeking to force the judges to act.

Miss Abbott is ex-officio secretary of the qualification board under the terms of the charter. The qualification board will select five or less condidates for the post of chief executive of San Mateo county, passing its recommendations on to the supervisors, who hold the appointive power.

The demurrer holds that the judges are prohibited from acting on the qualification board by Section 18 of Article VI of the tate constitution. This bars a judge from assuming nonjudicial duties.

Acceptance of their duties as tion 18 of Article Vi of the state from the bench, or if they so serve, the validity of the charter or their acts would be left open for future question, say the judges.

Here are the four questions which the judges ask the high court to answer:

(1) Does membership upon the qualification board constitute an office or public employment?

(2) If so, is it a judicial office or employment?

(3) Would acceptance by a superior judge of membership upon the board be deemed to me a resignation of his judicial office?

(4) Would a selection by the superior judge of a substitute or nominee in his stead be likewise the acceptance of another nonjudicial office or employment and productive of the ame result?

Judge Swart and Judge McNutt "as citizens" are "desirous of futhering, by al lawful means within their power, the successful establishment and operation of the form of government provided for by the recently adopted county charter . . ."

But as "judges of the superior court' they "believe themselves disqualified from assuming the offices of members of the qualification board."

On this point they say:

"If the extra-judicial duties involve in this charter may be imposed upon a superior judge, other like non-judicial duties may be imposed upon him ad infinitum to the utter destruction of his efficiency in the discharge of his judicial functions."

If the state supreme court should hold that the judges cannot serve, the qualification board feature of the charer would be null and void.

This would then place the appointing power directly in the hands of the supervisors, who would not be limited in selecting from a list recommended by the qualification board.

This special feature was inserted into the charter expressly to take the appointment out of the hands of the supervisors because of the belief that this step would mean limiting the influence of politics in the selection.

Judges Swart and McNutt are being represented in the high court by two prominent San Francisco attorneys, A. A. Heer and J. H. Sapiro.

Fire Trails for Job Aid Receive Board's Approval

Two relief projects for building of fire trails as recommended by Fire Warden Bert Werder were under approval of the board of supervisors today. The work will cost $1305 for labor.

The clearing and burning of brush will take place along the La Honda, Corte Madero, Alpine, Cordilleras, Kings Mountain and Gazos creek roads.

JOHN RYANS RETURN FOR SHORT VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan, of Seattle, who are spending some time in the bay region, and who were recent guests of friends here, were in town today for a short visit. They formerly resided in Redwood City.

READY FOR S. S. F. EXHIBIT

Alfred and Helen Alberti, members of 4H Boys and Girls Clubs, Los Banos, California, with Hereford Baby Beef to be exhibited at the 6th Annual Junior Livestock and Baby Beef Show, to be held at the Union Stockyards, South San Francisco, April 10th to 13th.

Auditor Aide Succumbs to Brief Illness

Kenneth Scott, 42, chief deputy county auditor in the office of County Auditor Edward M. Stack, succumbed at 5 o'clock Wednesday to a week's illness. He died in the Community Hospital, Beresford.

Mr. Scott's wife, Katherine, whom he married a year ago in Los Angeles, was notified by wire as was also his former wife, Miss Ruth Ward, by whom he has a 14-year-old son, William Scott. She also resides in Los Angeles.

Little is known of Scott's life or of his relatives. Stack has information that Scott lost a brother in the World War and that his parents reside in England. His father was a former minister, Stack was informed.

The deputy auditor, who began his work with the county two years ago, was stricken at a San Mateo hotel last Tuesday. His malady at first baffled physicians, who later found he had developed complications affecting several vital organs of the body.

Mr. Scott's remains are at the Burlingame chapel of Crosby and Company, where rites are being arranged by Mr. Stack.

T. Allain Is Death Victim At Age of 86

Toussaint Allain, pioneer resident of this city, passed away Wednesday at his home, 319 Bradford street. Although a native of France, he resided here for the past 50 years. He was 86 years of age and was the husband of the late Mary V. Allain, who passed away here in 1922. A son, George Allain, died in the service in 1918 at the Bremerton navy yard in Washington.

Mr. Allain is survived by five daughters: Mrs. Josephine Dearborn, Mrs. Louisa Williamson, Mrs. Emma Lutje, Mrs. Margaret West and Mrs. Blanche King; and by three sons, Julius, Frank and Emil Allain. He was the stepfather of John Badie. Twenty-six grandchildren and nine great-grand children also survive.

He was a member of Metamora Tribe, No. 24, of the Improved Order of Redmen of this city.

The funeral services will be held on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock from the Layng and Tinney Funeral Home; thence to Mt. Carmel Church, where a requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul, commencing at 9:30 o'clock.

Menlo Park

The Menlo Park City Council met Tuesday night to adopt a skeleton ordinance that will go to its final reading at the next meeting of the council permitting the sale of beer in Menlo Park. The council disregarded the state law prohibiting the sale of liquor within a mile and a half of any state university on the ground that 3.2 beer was a beverage and not alcoholic. Weeden, Dale and Crane were the only councilmen present.

The only restriction to be placed on the dispensing of the foamy liquor was that it must not be sold to persons under 18.

In discussion of the beer ordinance, no mention of the state code restriction because of nearness to Stanford was made except in a statement by City Attorney George K. Whitworth that this might completely nullify any action which might be taken by the city of Menlo Park.

Several merchants and soda fountain proprietors, however, are planning to put beer on sale as soon as it becomes legal and to pay no attention to the penal code section, whose changes are now being sought in bill introduced in state legislature.

They argue that "near beer" and "alcoholic liquor" have been on sale even on the Stanford campus itself and that the new brew is not "intoxicating."

City Attorney Whitworth explained to the council that the initiative ordinance setting up state control of liquor, which was passed last November, does not become operative until repeal of the 18th amendment and that it was up to the city to adopt a regulatory beer ordinance at least until the state acts.

Any business house should be allowed to sell the beer without paying any further license, declared Councilman E. J. Crane, who described the beer as "a beverage, not an intoxicating liquor."

Crane also favored he placing of the age limit of buyers at 18, not 21.

Twenty-eight Hermosa way and Fremont street property owners presented a petition asking the city to scarify, roll and oil those streets with screenings. Although they agreed that the streets were dangerous in their present state and badly in need of repair, the councilmen declared that the city was financially unable to perform the work. Mayor Weeden declared that he was attempting to secure an allotment of relief bond issue money to provide labor for repair work. In that case, he said, the property owners of each street would have to collect probably approximately $100 to pay for needed materials.

The office of poundmaster of the city, held by Harvey M. Huesties, was declared vacant by the council.

The city attorney was ordered to commence negotiations for a blanket public liability and property damage insurance policy for the protection of the city.

Miss Carmel O'Keefe had as her guests at her home on Oak Grove avenue during the week-end Miss Ruth Rugaard, Miss Lorraine Debenedetti, Miss Irene Marion and Miss Frances Woldson, all students of the San Francisco College for Women at Lone Mountain. The young ladies had a delightful time and enjoyed the beautiful scenery of Menlo Park.

REDUCTION IN WATER RATES UP

City Manager's Plan Made in Lieu of Tax Relief

Consideration was given by the city council Monday to a proposal of City Manager E. A. Rolison that municipal water rates here be reduced an average of 20 per cent.

This would effect a saving of some $15,000 to $20,000 per year to water users in Redwood City.

Rolison's plan was advanced because of the defeat of an amendment to the charter last Tuesday which would have made possible the use of water department surplus for general tax relief.

Under the terms of the charter, some $70,000 in surplus will be necessary before this money could be invested in county, state or federal bonds.

If the amendment had carried, Redwood City could have credited $12,500 this year of the water department to general tax relief. This would have means a 10-cent tax reduction.

City Councilman Henry Beeger suggested to the council an alternative plan to reducing the water rates. This would call for the surplus earnings of the water department to be used to buy up outstanding bonds of the water department.

Buying up the bonds would give the taxpayer direct benefit, Beeger said, and would not help the renter or outside-the-city resident who pays the small excess charge for water which helps carry the tax load.

Rolison questioned whether this could be done legally as the charter calls for a 15 per cent surplus before the surplus earnings can be invested in bonds. This question was put up to City Attorney Albert Mansfield for a decision.

Municipal water rate cuts are designed to help the "small fellow," Rolison said. The minimum of $1.25 per month would be cut to $1, and a 10 per cent discount for cash would be offered, making the water charge but 90 cents.

The $5.10 monthly charge under the new set-up would be $4.50, and with the 10 per cent cash discount, would amount to but $4.05.

Councilman Robert Jones said he believed the old rates should apply in the outside areas because it was not fair to pass on this relief to those not helping to carry the city's tax load. This was the consensus of the city manager and the board.

Councilman George McNulty asked if the 2 per cent interest being paid on the water department surplus was being credited to the water fund or the general fund. City Treasurer B. E. Myers said he believed it was going to the general fund.

McNulty replied that he believed the interest belongs to the water department and should be so credited in the future.

Rates as now under consideration were worked out by City Engineer Charles Dimmitt and are based on actual sales so that no guesswork was used, Rolison explained. They range from 16 to 28 per cent less, with the average at 20 per cent.

Councilman Charles Lambert said there was no need of immediate rush and on his motion the Beeger proposal was put up to City Attorney Mansfield for a report at the next meeting.

Dog License for Co. Delayed for Further Study

San Mateo county's proposed dog license ordinance was continued two weeks today as consideration was given to the impounding of cattle—not provided for in the original draft.

Meanwhile the supervisors received seven applications for appointment as poundmaster from the following: Alfred Grainger, Rewood City; Frank Shields, Redwood City; George Isadore Jr., Marvin Cook, and A. S. Santos, Half Moon Bay; Roy J. Shane, Redwood City, and Barney Kildare, San Gregorio.

The "Pony Express" was not run by ponies, but by the most virile breed of horses.

Shortridge Catches Himself

The oratorical ability of Samuel M. Shortridge is known beyond the confines of the United States as is evidenced by the following article recently appearing in the London Times:

"Californians are noted for the pride they take in their state. One of their senators, Mr. Sam Shortridge, referred in a speech to 'California, over there to the west, where the sun sets.' Then he paused for a moment in embarrassment. It was almost les-majeste to admit the sun ever sets in sunny California, so he quickly added one word, 'reluctantly.' The situation was saved."

And where is the loyal Californian who does not agree with the Hon. Sam Shortridge?

To The Point

Former Congressman Free's comments on business conditions go straight to the mark. Business is the real source of employment, and the reopening of factories, he says, is the remedy needed. A flood of imports from foreign countries made possible by depreciated currencies and cheap labor have closed many. Paper pulp from Russia, Sweden, Norway and Canada is sold in the United States at less than cost of domestic production. This has thrown 300,000 American workers out of employment. Electric globes made in Japan have closed six American factories. Cement from Japan was used to build fortifications in Hawaii. Foreign tomato paste and fish are driving California products out of the market.

The fact that foreign nations, because of depreciated currencies, have been able to scale our tariff walls and undersell domestic producers has been known to congress for more than a year. President Hoover called attention to this situation time and again. It was a simple matter to correct the abuse by adding to the tariff the amount of depreciation in foreign currency. To have done so would have put several American industries on their feet and restored jobs. But while congress seems to have time to consider some visionary plan to relieve unemployment, apparently it has no time to consider practical measures to enable our industries to give employment.

That the dirigible is a delusive dream is proven by the second major accident to occur to these mammoth air travelers built for United States service. The man in the street is now pretty well convinced that further building of dirigibles should be stopped and that the tax burden of the country be lightened just that much and at the same time conserve human life.

Practices of a savage nature indulged by some types of people who have come to California should be severely punished, for this is no country for barbarism to be followed under religious or other rites.

Simplified Cooking BY ELECTRIC TIME CONTROL BY ELECTRIC TEMPERATURE CONTROL

SIMPLIFY LIVING... LESSEN WORK

IF YOUR WIFE complains of being tired, or wishes she had time to spend in the garden, perhaps it's because, like so many women she is a slave to her kitchen.

For her good, consider this proposal. Do away with the need for your wife standing by a hot stove in hot summer weather, waiting and watching while meals are being cooked. Ask her if she hasn't wished many times for an electric range with electric controls that do the watching and waiting—give her precious freedom.

More than a million American women have turned to electric cooking. It wasn't that it was a new way to cook, it was a better way that made cooking more simple, more certain. Yes, and food cooked in an electric range tastes better, is more healthful. Less water is used and there is no boiling away of valuable minerals in vegetables, while meats are more flavorful, juicy and tender.

Why not carry out this sensible suggestion that will allow worth-while freedom that means greater health and contentment? See and select the electric range for your home at the nearest P. G. and E. office or in your electric dealer's store. Low prices and liberal purchase terms prevail on this year's electric range models.

Beth Jacob in Stanford Park after an interim of several months. The new structure which will cost over $5,000 will be ready for occupation, according to Joseph Blachman, president of the board of directors, in less than a month and house the activities of the congregation. The community center, which will adjoin the temple, will not be completed until next year. Rabbi Kenneth Carlton Zwerin is the minister of the congregation. During the completion of the temple, the congregation will continue its worship at Guild Hall, Laurel street in Menlo Park.

Menlo Parlors, Native Sons and Native Daughters of the Golden West, have postponed their next card party from April 6 to April 20.

W. T. Casey found in the old Casey building on Oak Grove avenue the other day, a program of the exercises of the opening of Stanford University in 1891. Nearly all those appearing on the program have long since gone to the other land. Mr. Casey places much sentimental value on the souvenir.

The city of Atherton at a meeting held Monday afternoon adopted an ordinance permitting the sale of beer in the business district of the city. A license fee of $25 a quarter is to be charged for the permit. The sale of the beverage is to be under police supervision.

A battle developed at the annual election for a member of the Menlo Park Fire Commission last Monday. James B. Howell, incumbent, was the only candidate to file for the position. Late in the afternoon a write-in campaign for James Murray was started and for a while it looked as though he would win. But when the Howell forces began operations, a great drive was made for votes. The result of the election was: James Murray, 86; J. B. Howell, 237. For several years there has always been a write-in candidate. Mr. Howell is also the sanitary commissioner.

Mrs. W. J. Moore of Hollywood has come to Menlo Park to be with her mother, Mrs. Clara J. Hunnell, who is seriously ill.

Charles Wolfe, 56, who has resided on Mills avenue in Menlo Park for some years, died suddenly Tuesday while plowing in the Olsen orchard on MacBain avenue. Heart attack was the cause of death. He was found lying on the ground by Mr. Olsen and was at once removed to the Palo Alto hospital but died on the way.

Up until a year ago he was a gardener for the Southern Pacific Company. It was his duty to take care of the grounds at the various stations in this district. The position was abolished last year.

Mr. Wolfe was a native of Coryell county, Texas. He had lived in Menlo Park for the past 11 years. Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Damie Wolfe; three daughters, Mrs. C. Hensley and Mrs. Jessie Farrell of Menlo Park and Mrs. G. Peterson of Palo Alto; three sons, J .L., Lowell and Charles Wolfe; all of Menlo Park; four sisters, Mrs. G. D. Squires of Woodside, Mrs. Thomas Tibbs of Menlo Park, Mrs. M. C. Tibbs of Palo Alto and Mrs. G. W. Chamberlain of Texas; and two brothers, H. and W. Wolfe of Texas.

Trustees were elected by the Menlo Park Presbyterian Church at its annual meeting Monday night as follows:

J. H. Heltzel, George E. Chapman, Francis Johnson, J. T. Aabel, Walter Bassett, P. J. Haight, and Harold Wild.

Leon Douglass Returns From Deepsea Trip

Leon F. Douglass, millionaire inventor and Menlo Park resident, was back home Tuesday following a thrilling photographic expedition after deepsea specimens of animal life.

Douglass was accompanied on the trip by his wife, and his daughters, Ena and Florence.

They were active members of the Johnson-Smithsonian deepsea expedition which, during the past few months, explored the deepest water in the world off Porto Rico.

"I'm actually ashamed to even start describing some of the fantastic animals I photographed," Douglass said upon docking in San Francisco aboard the Grace liner Santa Rosa.

"No one would believe me and to describe them would be to attempt telling of sights conjured up in the most terrible nightmares.

"Fish, with mouths perhaps, eight times as large as their bodies and with razor sharp teeth. Gruesome shrimps, with claws like razors, who hack at enemies and cut them in two."

Douglass has photographic records of sharks biting with incredible swiftness while swimming at great speed.

"The shark's teeth interlock and move with a latitudinal motion, cutting like a pair of hair clippers," Douglas explained.

Douglass' two daughters took an active part in the work. Ena, a student of anthropology at the University of California, did research work, while Florence went below the surface several times in a diving suit.

More Bids for County Manager Office in Sight

Roy W. Pilling, assistant to former City Manager John Edy of Berkeley and a former city councilman of that city, is planning to apply for the post of chief executive of San Mateo county, it was learned today.

The "tip" that Pilling is considering the post came from a letter received by the supervisors from Prof. Samuel C. May of Berkeley, who endorses Pilling's application.

Chester C. Fisk, Berkeley, assistant city manager, and Mayor Hugh H. Smith of Daly City filed Monday.

Others on file include J. C. Beard, Burlingame postmaster; Richard Savage, Redwood City engineer; Randall Dorton, Monterey city manager; Roland C. Koehler, Pontiac, Mich., and Albert Ackerman, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

H. S. Throckmorton, Los Angeles engineer, has requested information concerning the post.

Woodside Heights Bld'g Job Is Filed

A $1,422 addition to the home of Mrs. John Bakewell Jr., in Woodside Heights, is to be constructed at once by Frank S. Marshall, of Atherton township, according to plans filed today with County Recorder T. C. Rice here.

Sidney Robertson Passes Away Here

Sidney P. Robertson, San Francisco attorney, former newspaperman and friend of celebrities, died here Saturday following a long fight against an incurable ailment.

Born in England, where his father served on the bench for 40 years, Robertson came to America in 1887, reached San Francisco via Portland shortly afterward, and immediately became a personage.

Always keenly interested in the city's foreign colonies, he was for years attorney for the Chinese Six Companies.

Then he made his home in the old Montgomery block, took over the guardianship of its strangely assorted tenants, and became celebrated for his dinners where the city's out-at-elbows old-timers sat across the table from its affluent successes.

An enthusiastic dog-fancier, Robertson was in great demand as a judge at shows.

He is survived by his wife, professionally known as Sallie Lomas, one of the original Floradora Sextet, and a California belle. She was the widow of Robertson's brother when they married in 1929.

UNUSUAL MISHAP

BURLINGAME, Mar. 3. — Mrs. Marguerite Hockabout of this city suffered cuts and bruises Sunday when she was struck by a parked car which was hit by a trolley and knocked against her.

Hoover and Mills En Route to Reno

PALO ALTO, Apr. 1 (UP)—Ex-President Herbert Hoover left here today for Reno and Carson City, Nev., planning to inspect mining properties owned by Ogden Mills, former secretary of the treasury. Mrs. Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Mills were in the party. They said the trip was planned for recreation with no thoughts of business and that they would return probably Monday.

Barber's Estate Is Given $7500 Value

Saverio Santaluce, Menlo Park resident and well-known San Mateo barber, left an estate of $7,500, according to a petition for letters of administration on file here today.

Rene Santaluce, Menlo Park, his son, is asking the letters.

The widow, Augustine, is named as heir to the estate. There is also a daughter, Lilliane, who also resides in Menlo Park.

Burlingame Judge's Son Not on Akron

Rolph Bird, son of former Justice of the Peace W. M. Bird of Burlingame, who was with the Akron on its flight to the Pacific Coast last year, had recently been transferred to the Macon and was not aboard the ill-fated ship when it fell off the New Jersey coast early Tuesday.

Bird's father spent anxious hours awaiting word from his son until the assuring wire came through.

Otto Hoffman Passes Away At Belmont

Otto Hoffman, pioneer resident of Belmont, passed away early this morning at his home on Emmett avenue in that city. He was 71 years of age. He was for many years prior to his retirement an employe of the Spring Valley Water Company.

He was a member of Bayview Lodge No. 109, Independent Order of Odd Fellows of Redwood City.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Hoffman, and a son, Paul Hoffman of Los Angeles.

A brother, Max Hoffman of 305 Cedar street, this city, also survives.

California Market Makes Improvements

The California Market has installed three new National Cash registers to take care of their rapidly increasing business it was announced today by Marion Silva and Fred Marsh. Other improvements are also being made in the market for the convenience of their patrons.

There are an average of 55 suicides every day in the United States.

Real Estate Sign Is Defended by Holt

Charles Holt, Redwood City and San Francisco realty man, told the city council Monday night that the sign at Whipple avenue and El Camino Real which the council has ordered removed has been there for 10 years without a complaint.

"If that sign goes, they all go," Holt said, pointing out that several other neighboring properties had similar signs. The council referred the matter to Building Inspector I. C. Drathman for a report. Holt said he wanted to be reasonable in the matter but did not want to be discriminated against.

Belmont Mayor Sues for $1300 For Road Work

Chris L. Jordan, Belmont road contractor and mayor, today sued for $1,300 for work done by him in reconditioning Bay road in East Palo Alto. The work was done in March, 1931.

The defendant is B. Wynns, for whom the work was done. The Massachusetts Bonding & Insurance Company, which bonded Wynns, is also named as defendant. Albert Mansfield is counsel for the plaintiff.

Indications are that more tourists will visit Jamaica this year than in 1932.

Tuolumne Divorce Is Brought to S. M. Co.

Transferred from Tuolumne county, the divorce suit of Milton J. Ward against Alice M. Ward was filed with County Clerk Elmore B. Hinman today. Ward charged that his wife deserted him in this county on February 1, 1931, after 16 years of wedded life. They have two daughters, Barbara, 15, and Marian, 12, now in the custody of their mother. Walker Peddicord is counsel.

No Fire Loss Here During Past Month

The monthly report of Fire Chief Mark Ryan shows no losses by fire in Redwood City during March. There were four alarms, as follows: 1 auto; 1 chimney; 1 miscellaneous and 1 false.

A year ago, there were three alarms, resulting in damage amounting to $596.

Seventy-four volunteer firemen responded last month, or an average of 18 per alarm.

Girl, 3, Injured When Hit by Auto

Arura Rodrquez, 3, suffered cuts and bruises here Monday afternoon when she was struck by the automobile of M. Yamada, Redwood City Japanese, on Hemlock avenue, near Madrone. She was skipping rope near her home.

Yamada was instructed to have the brakes on his car fixed after the mishap, following an investigation by Officer S. E. Douglass.

Second Block Of Co. Relief Bonds Bought

Heller, Bruce & Company of San Francisco bid in the $124,000 San Mateo county relief bonds offered for sale by the board of supervisors Monday.

The bonds drew a low rate of 4½ per cent and the bond house offered a premium of $801.

Interest at the 4½ per cent rate will amount to $72,999 for the life of the bonds, which will run 16 years. This will bring the cost of the bonds and interest to $196,999, less the $801 premium, or $196,198.

The block sold yesterday is the second. The first for $112,000 brought 4¼ and 4½ per cent rates. There remains to be sold $114,000 worth of bonds.
